

ABSTRACT

- 5        The invention relates to compositions in the form of a powder or granules containing L-ascorbic acid and/or a pharmaceutically acceptable salt thereof, and pectin in a quantity within the range of about 0.1 to about 10% by weight.